Mayor Hardesty discussed the plowing of streets and sidewalks. Some complaints were made about the sidewalks not being plowed during the week of Christmas. Some employees were off on vacation and there should not be any problems from here on out. Dave Kirk said the Street Department was out plowing Christmas morning while most families were home enjoying Christmas with their families.

Bob Matson commended Dick Lawless for his 52 years of service with the Garrettsville Fire Department.

Dave Kirk thanked Jody Schroath for the article in the Villager about the danger of kids playing on the creek when the water is not frozen.

Revenue, Expenditure and Cash balance reports were reviewed.

Craig Moser discussed the finances of the Village we still need to use caution this year.

Moved by Moser, seconded by Kirk to adjourn.
